Did they mean tantrum?

Where a fluffy is crying because she can't lift her unborn baby today, with years of social media "role" to blame?

What's all the hand-off-to-Kamala nonsense? Is it because Democratic officials are so afraid of the media that they're pretending that the country's problems at any time, so both their questions and answers are geared to do, like, Kamala Harris interviews we've been hot around?

Christopher Wray knew hunters laptop wasn't disinformation. He also knew that the FBI had suppressed it for 2 years. He's a disgrace and deserves to be fired on and bring him up on charges! Not one person should get a pass.
